THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Woman's Account of the Last Battle at Winchester.

To the Editor of the Boston Transcript:

Having had an opportunity of being near a battle-field, and a sharer in some of the privations incident to army life, I thought a short account of the fight in and retreat from Winchester taken from a woman's stand-point of view, would not be uninteresting to your readers. Last Saturday morning when I went the rounds of the hospitals in that city, how little I expected that I was looking my last upon so many of our poor wounded boys. We then looked for reinforcements by every train, having heard that Banks and his army were coming towards Winchester. Towards noon the army supplies and ambulances came pouring in, and then the report was that the wagons were to be camped on the fair grounds, half a mile from town. The Unionists there had confidence in Banks, while the secessionists put on a bolder face than ever, dressed themselves in their best, and made entertainment for Jackson's army.

Little we thought, as we heard their impertinent remarks, that we should "see who would rule to-morrow," that their boasting was to be verified. Soon came the foot-soldiers, weary and travel worn, by tens and fifties. People began to say "this looks like a retreat;" still we had hope. By night matters grew desperate. There was fighting. The rebels were pouring in upon our soldiers, exhausted by march, from every point. The Union men grew thoughtful; some of them left the city, while still the immense train, portions of cavalry and tired foot-soldiers passed on. All this time reinforcements were surely coming—but they never came. "They are twenty, thirty, forty to our one," the soldiers said when we questioned them about the rebel forces.

In the morning, Winchester presented a strange sight. Vehicles of every description, crowded with sick soldiers and citizens, came by the door. The contrabands flocked by, each with his little bundle. Whole families of negroes, some with huge packs strapped on head and shoulders, little children almost too small to walk, lean horses carrying two and three, went following the train. Meantime, the thunder of cannonading had commenced. Nearer and nearer it came. The cry went forth that the rebels were driving our forces. We had engaged a carriage, but it failed us. As the shells began to pour into the doomed city, we availed ourselves of the offer of some sick soldiers, who had already crowded an old army wagon, and leaving everything behind us, we took passage in the retreating train, doubtful if we should get away.

By the time we were one mile from the city many of the buildings were in flames. Our men first fired the houses of storage, and blew up the powder magazines. The rebels directed their shells on the hospitals, firing nearly all. God knows how many of our poor boys were burned to death. The report is, and that from the doctors, that they killed all they found alive, even the women-nurses, of whom there were four who remained. Meantime our retreat was covered in a masterly manner by Gen. Banks. Five miles from town, after the rebels had made a dash into Winchester, our men formed in line of battle. The scene was exciting beyond description. We were stopped by a difficult fording place, and where three or four roads diverged from the main street.

At any moment we expected the rebels might cut off our retreat. To the right the infantry filed off—and the artillery planted—to the left, two regiments of cavalry were forming, their officers dashing from point to point, while along the roads squads of soldiers rode out to reconnoiter. In six hours we entered Martinsburg, our men fighting in the rear almost constantly, and keeping off the enemy at every point. Many a sick soldier wearily plodded along, animated by hopes of liberty on the Maryland side; now and then a wounded horse staggered by, the blood running where the ball entered. Our progress was necessarily slow, and men came dashing by with all kinds of reports. Still there was nothing like a panic.

At Martinsburg the order was to press on to Williamsport, Md.; so, leaving a regiment of cavalry drawn up in battle array, we continued our monotonous journey, arriving at the bank of the Potomac at five o'clock in the afternoon. The men on horses forded the river, and a rope ferry-boat was soon arranged for the heavy train. I think there was never a more thankful company of human being than those of us who stood upon the shores of Maryland last night.

To-day at five o'clock nearly all the train had crossed. Gen. Banks and staff came in about noon. I have been several hours among the wounded. It is a pitiful sight to see them brought in covered with blood. Poor fellows! they bear their misfortunes with heroism.

Few generals could, with a force so disproportionate, have been equal to General Banks—fewer still would have had the bravery even to defend their supplies in so masterly a manner. There was no confusion, no flinching. The saddest part of the matter is the treatment we have reason to fear the Union people will experience from the hands of the rebels. They have no humanity. They kill our wounded soldiers, and even our women nurses are said to be shot. It is evident that they are too leniently dealt by. Several companies carried the black flag, and their cry was: "No quarter!" It is rumored that Shields is in their rear. If he is, farewell to the rebel army of the valley. On this side of the river our artillery is planted—they are hemmed in as they never were before. Should Winchester be retaken soon, as we have reason to believe it will be, I shall return there.

Very truly yours,
MARY A. DENISON.
Williamsport, Md.

A WOMAN SWALLOWS HER FALSE TEETH.—The Syracuse Standard says that a woman named Mrs. Lurray lies at the point of death at Collamer, Onondago county, from the effects of swallowing her teeth a few days since. She swallowed five teeth fastened to a plate, and the whole are fast in the lower part of her throat, and cannot be extracted. The poor woman is in a dreadful situation, apparently without hope of relief, and dying by degrees, with perfect consciousness of her situation.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.
WE CHALLENGE
to produce
THEIR EQUAL!
We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are
UNSURPASSED!
For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.
For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.
As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.
These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.
Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Woman's Account of the Last Battle at Winchester.

To the Editor of the Boston Transcript:

Having had an opportunity of being near a battle-field, and a sharer in some of the privations incident to army life, I thought a short account of the fight in and retreat from Winchester taken from a woman's stand-point of view, would not be uninteresting to your readers. Last Saturday morning when I went the rounds of the hospitals in that city, how little I expected that I was looking my last upon so many of our poor wounded boys. We then looked for reinforcements by every train, having heard that Banks and his army were coming towards Winchester. Towards noon the army supplies and ambulances came pouring in, and then the report was that the wagons were to be camped on the fair grounds, half a mile from town. The Unionists there had confidence in Banks, while the secessionists put on a bolder face than ever, dressed themselves in their best, and made entertainment for Jackson's army.

Little we thought, as we heard their impertinent remarks, that we should "see who would rule to-morrow," that their boasting was to be verified. Soon came the foot-soldiers, weary and travel worn, by tens and fifties. People began to say "this looks like a retreat;" still we had hope. By night matters grew desperate. There was fighting. The rebels were pouring in upon our soldiers, exhausted by march, from every point. The Union men grew thoughtful; some of them left the city, while still the immense train, portions of cavalry and tired foot-soldiers passed on. All this time reinforcements were surely coming—but they never came. "They are twenty, thirty, forty to our one," the soldiers said when we questioned them about the rebel forces.

In the morning, Winchester presented a strange sight. Vehicles of every description, crowded with sick soldiers and citizens, came by the door. The contrabands flocked by, each with his little bundle. Whole families of negroes, some with huge packs strapped on head and shoulders, little children almost too small to walk, lean horses carrying two and three, went following the train. Meantime, the thunder of cannonading had commenced. Nearer and nearer it came. The cry went forth that the rebels were driving our forces. We had engaged a carriage, but it failed us. As the shells began to pour into the doomed city, we availed ourselves of the offer of some sick soldiers, who had already crowded an old army wagon, and leaving everything behind us, we took passage in the retreating train, doubtful if we should get away.

By the time we were one mile from the city many of the buildings were in flames. Our men first fired the houses of storage, and blew up the powder magazines. The rebels directed their shells on the hospitals, firing nearly all. God knows how many of our poor boys were burned to death. The report is, and that from the doctors, that they killed all they found alive, even the women-nurses, of whom there were four who remained. Meantime our retreat was covered in a masterly manner by Gen. Banks. Five miles from town, after the rebels had made a dash into Winchester, our men formed in line of battle. The scene was exciting beyond description. We were stopped by a difficult fording place, and where three or four roads diverged from the main street.

At any moment we expected the rebels might cut off our retreat. To the right the infantry filed off—and the artillery planted—to the left, two regiments of cavalry were forming, their officers dashing from point to point, while along the roads squads of soldiers rode out to reconnoiter. In six hours we entered Martinsburg, our men fighting in the rear almost constantly, and keeping off the enemy at every point. Many a sick soldier wearily plodded along, animated by hopes of liberty on the Maryland side; now and then a wounded horse staggered by, the blood running where the ball entered. Our progress was necessarily slow, and men came dashing by with all kinds of reports. Still there was nothing like a panic.

At Martinsburg the order was to press on to Williamsport, Md.; so, leaving a regiment of cavalry drawn up in battle array, we continued our monotonous journey, arriving at the bank of the Potomac at five o'clock in the afternoon. The men on horses forded the river, and a rope ferry-boat was soon arranged for the heavy train. I think there was never a more thankful company of human being than those of us who stood upon the shores of Maryland last night.

To-day at five o'clock nearly all the train had crossed. Gen. Banks and staff came in about noon. I have been several hours among the wounded. It is a pitiful sight to see them brought in covered with blood. Poor fellows! they bear their misfortunes with heroism.

Few generals could, with a force so disproportionate, have been equal to General Banks—fewer still would have had the bravery even to defend their supplies in so masterly a manner. There was no confusion, no flinching. The saddest part of the matter is the treatment we have reason to fear the Union people will experience from the hands of the rebels. They have no humanity. They kill our wounded soldiers, and even our women nurses are said to be shot. It is evident that they are too leniently dealt by. Several companies carried the black flag, and their cry was: "No quarter!" It is rumored that Shields is in their rear. If he is, farewell to the rebel army of the valley. On this side of the river our artillery is planted—they are hemmed in as they never were before. Should Winchester be retaken soon, as we have reason to believe it will be, I shall return there.

Very truly yours,
MARY A. DENISON.

A WOMAN SWALLOWS HER FALSE TEETH.—The Syracuse Standard says that a woman named Mrs. Lurray lies at the point of death at Collamer, Onondago county, from the effects of swallowing her teeth a few days since. She swallowed five teeth fastened to a plate, and the whole are fast in the lower part of her throat, and cannot be extracted. The poor woman is in a dreadful situation, apparently without hope of relief, and dying by degrees, with perfect consciousness of her situation.

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Friday Evening, June 6, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Right of the Nation to Abolish Slavery.

We are under obligations to the Madison Patriot for its prompt publication of our disclaimer of conditional Unionism with which it had charged us. At the same time it desires us to "communicate through the Gazette at your earliest convenience, how you propose to abolish slavery in all the states, without regard to the rights of their slave holders, and at the same time to go for the 'constitution' as it is."

We propose to abolish slavery by the war power of the nation. In a state of peace, when the national government is in no danger, we concede that it has no power over slavery in the states; but in actual war, which now exists, it is clothed with every power necessary to its own preservation. If an individual may take the life of an assailant to save his own, so may a nation; if he can save himself by taking the property or arms of his assailant, or anything else necessary to accomplish his object, at the moment of danger, the inherent principle of self-defence gives him the right to do it, and so may any number of individuals calling themseves a nation do the same thing.

It needs no argument to prove this; the works on international law are running over with precedents to sustain it, and every man is conscious that it is right.

Slavery is the cause of the war, if it had not existed the rebellion would not have occurred. If the institution were now destroyed the rebellion would also be destroyed. Without the slaves the rebels cannot raise food or build fortifications. Induce the slaves by the offer of freedom to take sides with us, abandon their masters, do the camp work of our armies, or whenever necessary, fight in the ranks against the common foe, and the rebel armies would be immediately dispersed. Thus the national government would be saved, and future wars on this subject prevented.

The rebel slave holders have no "rights" which loyal men are bound to respect.—They have no right to life or property—having forfeited every thing by rebellion. If they ever had any right to hold slaves they have none now.

As to the loyal slaveholders, we would remunerate them for their slaves, just as we would pay them for any sacrifice they may be called upon to make to sustain our armies in the field, or to destroy the enemy on his march or in his camp.

The "constitution as it is" provides for all this when it authorizes congress to punish treason, suppress rebellion, to make rules respecting captures on sea and land, and to make all laws necessary and proper to carrying into effect all the powers granted, and also when it makes the president the commander-in-chief of its armies, and causes him to swear to take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and to the best of his ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution, which the rebels seek to overthrow and destroy.

It being necessary to abolish slavery to accomplish all this, at this time, we beleive the president has a right, as commander-in-chief, clothed as he is with all the war powers of the nation, to proclaim the abolition of slavery, wherever war exists, and we pray that he may do it speedily.

Returned Prisoners.

About a dozen privates form the 1st Minnesota and 2d Wisconsin regiments, taken prisoners at Bull Run, and lately released on parole, passed through here last night. They give an interesting account of their ten months of prison life. Moved from point to point, from Richmond to New Orleans in cattle cars, too filthy to decently transport stock in, and packed so close that they could not sit; exposed along the route, to every insult from the heathen inhabiting those localities; spending four months in the common prison in New Orleans, confined in the cells with not even straw to sleep on; the dungeon, equal to the Black Hole of Calcutta, at all times filled; receiving only three ounces of mule meat and six ounces of bread per day; sleeping on the bare floor in rooms 9x13½ with little or no ventilation, and sixteen persons in a room; forms a scene of suffering rarely equalled. Still the boys say they never complained, but rather rejoiced in suffering in so holy a cause.

They say that no one can imagine their feelings on seeing the old flag again, when they arrived at Washington, N. C. From the whole 1500 prisoners there went up a shout, equaled only by that of the Israelites when they escaped from bondage.—From many a hand, suddenly, and, to their captors, unexpectedly, waved the stars and stripes—small flags, which they had made while in New Orleans, and concealed about their persons.

They say that about two weeks before they were released, their treatment was almost entirely changed, having but little to complain of, and during that time only 16 out of their whole number died at New Orleans, and six at Salisbury, N. C.; while their guard lost a greater number. The rebels are giving up all hope of success, and have lost all faith in Beauregard.

The gratification of seeing the men who have suffered so much for their country, return to their homes, is lessened by a knowledge of the manner in which they have been treated by their own government. They have not received a dollar from our government since their imprisonment. In prison they earned what money they could by the labor of their hands in the manufacture of trinkets. Mr. Hubbs, to whom we have elsewhere particularly referred, exhibited to us a chased finger ring made by him from a beef bone. After being received by the United States officers, they were sent to New York without a cent of pay. At Buffalo, the mayor provided them a good meal, and too proud to beg, they made the trip from that city to Chicago without food. Pennsylvania alone had an agent in New York, and all her sons were generously provided for until they should reach home.

Vote of Senator Howe.

Senator Howe, of this state, has been incorrectly reported as one of the three senators who voted against Senator Doolittle's bill for collecting taxes in the insurrectionary districts. The Congressional Globe of May 13th gives the following as the vote on that bill:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Browning, Chandler, Clark, Eavis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Harlan, Harris, Henderson, Howe, King, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Latham, McDougall, Morrill, Nesmith, Pomeroy, Rice, Sherman, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson, Willey, Wilson of Massachusetts, and Wright—32.

Nays—Messrs. Howard, Powell and Saulsbury—3.

It will be seen that it was Mr. Howard, of Michigan, not Mr. Howe, of Wisconsin, who voted against the bill. When we saw Judge Howe reported as voting against the bill, we thought it very strange, but had no means to contradict it, and are well pleased to be able now to report him voting correctly.

Wisconsin Soldiers in the Hands of the Rebels.—The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday gives a list of Union officers and soldiers who have been confined at Salisbury, N. C., for the past four months and are still held there. The following names of Wisconsin soldiers are given, all from the 2d regiment:

T. Brookens, Co. C; J. S. Bell, Co D; E. S. Best, Co. G; G. Beck, Co. H; J. E. Donevan, Co. B; J. Frame, Co. B; S. W. Graven, Co. E; Capt. G. Graves, Co. E; S. P. Jackson, Co. B; E. C. March, Co. A; D. Perry, Co. E; H. Parker, Co. A; H. Kohder, Co. C; E. K. Reed, Co. H; J. Ross, Co. K; B. Stimson, Co. E; M. Stroud, Co. E; O. Wilcox, Co. D.

J. Langdon, of Co. I, and Solomon Wise, of Co K, of the Wisconsin 1st are also there.

We received a call this morning from Charles L. Hubbs, formerly a resident of this city, in the family of D. D. Wilson, who arrived with with the Minnesota soldiers last evening. Mr. Hubbs enlisted in the 1st Minnesota regiment, and was taken a prisoner at the Bull Run battle. He, with others, was taken to Richmond, then transferred to New Orleans, where he remained in a parish prison about four months.—The Union prisoners were guarded by criminals, some of the criminals being imprisoned on a charge of murder and other high crimes. From New Orleans he and his companions were taken to Salisbury, N. C., and confined in a military prison until he was released to be sent home.

The prisoners at Salisbury were released in squads of 200, in alphabetical order, and each squad carried to Tarboro, N. C., until 400 had been collected, when they were sent down the river to Washington in open flat boats and placed in charge of Union officers. On one occasion, while making the passage down the river, the prisoners were kept over night in a tar factory, and some of them brought away conclusive evidence of the difficulty of getting out in the quantity of tar adhering to their scant clothing. At Washington they were shipped by steamboat to New York, and from that city were sent on their way to their respective homes.

Mr. Hubbs states that the last squad sent from Salisbury took in a portion of the prisoners whose names commenced with M. This will account for the retention of Ornmel Wilcox, of Capt. Ely's company, and others lower in the alphabet than M.—Brookens, Bell, Donovan and others, above M., mentioned in the list of the Philadelphia Inquirer, have been released. No officers had been released at the time Mr. Hubbs left Washington.

The persons who arrived here last night were Chas. W. Merritt, J. W. Imeson, J. B. Murkins, J. Mossburger, C. S. King, C. L. Hubbs of the 1st Minnesota, and L. P. Jackson and ——— Graham (supposed to be George) of the 2d Wisconsin.

CHAPTER 332.

AN ACT relating to the redemption of lands which were sold for unpaid taxes levied in the year 1858.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The time for the redemption of lands sold at any time in the year 1859, for the unpaid taxes levied in the year 1858, is hereby extended to the first day of December next.

Sec. 2. If the clerk of the county board of supervisors of any county has caused to be published, in the manner required by existing laws, a list of unredeemed lands, which were sold in the year 1859, no further publication shall be necessary in consequence of the preceding section; and in all cases where any such clerk has not caused to be published as provided by law, any list of unredeemed lands sold at any time in said year 1859, for taxes of the preceeding year, such clerk shall cause such list to be published for twelve successive weeks prior to the first day of November next, with a notice of the time of redemption; which list and notice shall be published in the newspaper in which such list and notices are now required to be published.

Sec. 3. This act shall be published and take effect immediately; and the secretary of state shall forthwith transmit printed copies thereof to the several clerks of the county board of supervisors.

Approved June 5, 1862.

Fort Wright Evacuated.

We have news, to-day, that the enemy have evacuated Fort Wright and that the flotilla has passed Fort Randolph, en route for Memphis. There are two forts just above Memphis which may somewhat impede their progress — Forts Harris and Pillow.

The French Defeated in Mexico.

The Key West correspondent of the New York Express states that the frigate Potomac had arrived from Vera Cruz with information of the complete defeat of the French and their retreat to Vera Cruz. This is very acceptable news, as the invasion of Mexico by the French is a great outrage.

Union Saving in North Carolina.

Governor Stanly is carrying his pro-slavery notions in North Carolina with a high hand. He has closed all the colored schools, and has commenced sending back slaves to their rebel masters, who take them out of the schools, and drive them off to their plantations. Many of the negroes have fled to the swamps, and they generally declare that they would rather die than go back to their masters. The officers and soldiers of the army are indignant at this state of things. If the administration does not purge itself of these acts of its governor, it will lose friends rapidly in the north. The "modifying" business heretofore has been applied to favor the slave holders. We shall see whether it is a rule that will work both ways.

From Arkansas.

The following is an extract of a letter received by a gentleman of this city:

Batesville, Ark., May 25, 1862.

Friend Merrill:—Southern Missouri is the most miserable, forsaken and dreary region I ever saw, and the people, with scarcely an exception, the most stupid, ignorant and barbarous of any white men (or Indians either) of the world. It was very rarely I met one who could write his name, while the inevitable butternut showed both poverty and indolence. Contrary to all my previous ideas, Arkansas is very fine and most of the people wealthy and intelligent. The greater portion is flat and broad plantations spread out on either hand.—Cotton is stored in great quantities, but there is little in cultivation this season, a law of this state forbidding its planting and requiring corn in its stead. This is generally obeyed, but in this portion they have not burned their cotton, though they have in the adjoining counties. At Pocahantas and Jacksonport we secured a large quantity of sugar, molasses and salt. We have foraged mostly for supplies, especially corn and bacon, but we paid almost every bill except to those who were in the army. I had a mill running for some time making corn meal, and here there are two. This is a beautiful village, about 1500 inhabitants, upon White river. It appears like a New England village, a broad street bordered by large forest trees, the houses tasty and beautiful, gardens of flowers in endless variety. I was at a house, this morning, completely overrun by flowering vines, while the garden was a perfect Arcadia—160 varieties of the rose being but a portion of its beauty, and many of these are in perrenial bloom. The house was a perfect palace within though plain without. The people are refined and cultivated and very friendly, a large number are for the Union.—Nearly all here feel confident that peace and a re-established Union is at hand.—God speed the day, and to him is due the glory. I see that Wisconsin has bled at every pore and laid that true man, Gov. Harvey, to sleep. Oh fearful the reckoning at the bar of Almighty Justice will be theirs, who brought this fiendish rebellion about!

Curtis has moved on towards Little Rock, but is delayed by the swollen rivers. We have 6,000 men ready to strike when we find a chance. Our foraging parties are frequently fired upon, but there are no large bodies in our vicinity. The 11th Wisconsin regiment is here and a splendid regiment it is, and they are in fine health and spirits.

Your friend,
B. E. HUTCHINSON.

LEGISLATIVE.

Wednesday, June 4.

In the SENATE, a bill extending the time of redemption on lands sold for the taxes of 1858 to the 1st of December, 1862, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

In the ASSEMBLY, Mr. H. L. Palmer, from the select committee on assessments and taxation, submitted a report, and a tax bill, embracing 155 foolscap pages.

The bill from the Senate extending the time of redemption on the taxes of 1858 was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Thursday, June 5.

In the SENATE, Senator Clark, from the select committee to whom had been referred so much of the Governor's message, as related to the death of Gov. Harvey, reported a series of appropriate resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

The same committee reported several bills: one appropriating to Mrs. Harvey the salary of the Governor, for the full term for which her husband was elected; one appropriating $200 for the erection of a suitable tomb stone over the grave of the late Governor; and one appropriating $500 to procure suitable testimonials to present to several gentlemen who rendered essential aid in procuring the body of the late Governor.

In the ASSEMBLY, the resolutions relating to the death of Gov. Harvey adopted in the Senate were adopted.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Washington, June, 5.

The navy department has issued proposals for the construction and complete equipment of 15 gunboats, speed not less than thirteen knots, to be delivered within four months, and in conjunction with the war department proposals are invited for heavy guns, for both of these branches of the public service.

Eastern Pennsylvania, June 5.

The terrible fushet in the Delaware and Lehigh rivers still continue. The water reaches the second story in the lower part of the town. All the bridges between here and MauchChunk are swept away. The Lehigh bridge is partially gone, and will probably be totally demolished. All the canals are under water. The iron works are stopped and the railroads are submerged.—Many people were drowned in their houses so sudden was the rise.—12 m. The Lehigh is stationary, the Delaware still rising.

Delaware Water Gap, June 2.

There is a very heavy freshet in the Delaware, equal to that of 1841. Articles of furniture, store goods, bridges, houses, &c., are going down the river. All the bridges on Broadhead Creek, excepting the railroad bridges, are gone. The damage to the Delaware, Lackawaxen and Western Railroad is great, and will require a week to repair it. The Poclo Creek at Stroudsburg overflowed, last night, and run through the town, carrying away many houses and bridges. The damage done is very great.

Port Jervis, June 5.

The storm of yesterday and last night was very severe in this vicinity, and considerable damage was done to the Delaware and Hudson Canal. Some 500 or 600 feet of the embankment was washed away near this place, and two or three acquaducts were carried away between here and Lackawaxen.

Washington, June 5.

The substitute of Representative Porter, which is likely to pass in the form offered, provides for emancipation in the following cases: Of every person who shall hereafter act as an officer in the army or navy, or as president, vice-president, member of congress, judge of any court, cabinet officer, foreign minister, commissioner or consul of the so-called confederate states, or as governor of a state, member of a convention or legislature, or judge of any court of the so-called confederate states, or who having held an office of honor, trust or profit in the United States, shall thereafter hold office in the so-called confederate states, and every person who shall hereafter hold any office or agency under the government of such confederate states or of any of the states of such confederacy, but persons holding state offices, unless appointed since the date of the secession ordinance or unless they shall have taken an oath of allegiance to such confederate states; also, the slaves of every person not embraced in the foregoing clauses, who after the passage of this act being actually, wilfully and without coercion or compulsion, engaged in armed rebellion, shall not within sixty days after public warning and proclamation made at his discretion by the President, lay down his arms and return to his allegiance.

Cairo, June 5.

Ten Memphis refuges arrived to-day. They were railroad engineers and say they ran three locomotives out of Memphis, on the Mobile and Ohio road to Humboldt, where they switched them off, brought them north to Trenton, where they found a bridge over Obion river destroyed. They ran the locomotives off the track, burned two bridges behind them and cut the telegraph wires. They bring the Memphis Argus of the 2d, which refers to the so called confederate victory at Richmond, but gives no particulars. Vicksburg is not yet in the possession of the federals. Gen. Vilipigue has asked for reinforcements at Ft. Wright. It was reported at Memphis that Halleck had taken Grand Junction. A meeting of the citizens of Memphis was held at the mayor's office, Sunday night, at which resolutions were adopted that the city will never yield to the enemy while it could be defended. Never voluntarily, and that citizens who don't take arms are expected to give pecuniary aid to the rebellion.

Chicago, June 5.
Special from the Mississippi Flotilla, June 4th.

The bombardment of the fort commenced early yesterday forenoon, and continued all day. It elicited a brisk cannonade from the enemy. The shells of the latter were quite accurately aimed, but failed to do any damage. At 6 o'clock, last evening, three federal rams went down the river to reconnoiter, and were fired on several times after passing Craig Head Point, but all returned uninjured. Subsequently the rebel boat Jeff Thompson came around a point, but being fired on by the Mound City and Cairo, retired. One shot from the former is said to heve taken effect in the wheel house of the rebel boat, On Monday, a party of our scouts captured the mate and 6 seaman of the rebel gunboat Beauregard, nearly opposite Fulton. They made but little resistence. The bombardment of the fort commenced again on the morning of the 4th, and was going on at the time the steamer left. The rebels reply occasionally.

Washington, June 5.

The war department received a dispatch from McClellan, to-day, stating that his dispatch of June 1st in regard to the late battle, was incorrectly published in the newspapers. He sends a copy of the original dispatch and desires its immediate publication, and says he is the more anxious about it as it would seem he had ignored the services of General Sumner, which were too valuable and brilliant to be overlooked. The mistake seems to have occurred in transmission by telegraph.

Corinth, June 5.

General Halleck moved his quarters here, to-day, occupying the house formerly occupied by Bragg. General Thomas occupies the one formerly occupied by Beauregard. The enemy is reported 80,000 strong between Baldwyn and Okolona. At last accounts Pope's advance was this side of Twenty mile Creek, and the enemy's rear guard was on the south side, still retreating. An English officer who deserted says that a high confederate officer told him they left here 120,000 strong, but when they arrived at Boonville 50,000 had deserted, mostly from Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Cairo, June 5.

Memphis papers of the 2d contain dispatches direct from Richmond on the 1st, of which the following is the substance:—Gen. Hill's division commenced the fight on Saturday morning, Rhodes', Garland's, Rains' and Anderson's brigades bearing the brunt of the battle until the arrival of their reinforcements. The federals were driven from their redoubts and their batteries turned upon them. Gen. Lee and President Davis were on the field and their presence increased the enthusiasm of our troops. The Yankees stubbornly contested every inch of the ground, while giving way before the impetuous charges of our men. Large numbers of confederate soldiers are wounded in the arms and legs. Gen. Rhodes is slightly wounded. The enemy tried to make a flank movement about seven o'clock in the evening, but were repulsed.

On Sunday the battle was renewed chiefly with musketry. Prisoners are constantly coming in.

Gen. Hatton of Tennessee is killed. The carnage on both sides is dreadful, the Yankees losing two to our one. About 500 prisoners have already been taken. The last dispatch sent on the 1st states the latest intelligence from the battle field represents the enemy as having been driving back three miles and a half from his position. Our forces occupy their camps at the present time. We captured three batteries after the most desperate fighting. The enemy were protected by wooded entrenchments.

Vicksburg papers of the 31st ult., say that 11 federal gunboats have gone down the river. They say the fleet is no nearer in possession of the city now than it was two weeks ago, and that the insurmountable obstacles encountered below Vicksburg had caused disaffection among the Yankees, compelling the commanders to fall back to reorganize their insubordinate forces.

McClellan's Headquarters, June 5—P. M.

The severe storm of Tuesday lasted the whole of yesterday. The Chickahominy rose to an unprecedented height. Trains from White House to the battle-field were detained, and the telegraph line prostrated.

All information shows that the rebels suffered terribly in the late battle.

All the carts, furniture carts, omnibusses, &c., were impressed for carrying the dead and wounded from the field, and the hotels and private houses are occupied as hospitals.

The rebels opened with artillery this morning, from five different points, opposite New Bridge, to prevent its reconstruction. Three of our batteries replied, causing the rebels to retreat after a hot fire of two hours. We lost one killed and two wounded.

[Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

Washington, June 5.

I was mistaken in my last night's dispatch that Burnham of Connecticut was absent on the emancipation vote. Every member not in the army either paired off or was present. The vote, therefore, is decisive, though, perhaps, the majority may be less on the passage of Porter's substitute than on its recommendation, unless constituency keeps the doubtful members up to their work.

The following brigadier generals are nominated: Col. Elliot, 2d Iowa cavalry, Col. James D. Morgan, Illinois, and Col. Gordon, 2d Massachusetts, now commanding a brigade under Banks.

The tax bill passed a third reading today in the senate.

A tax of two dollars is imposed on slaves of all ages. Mr. Simmons was defeated by a great majority in his proposition to amend the bill. There is no further chance for amendment.

Mr. Fessenden made a speech before the vote was taken on its final passage, against which several members will record themselves to reply.

It is said the president says it is not a proper time to interfere with Gov. Stanly, but many leading republicans demand his removal. Probably the matter is soon to be brought up in both houses.

Petitions were to-day presented by Senator Wade, stating the tax bill unconstitutional, and prayed for the apportionment of the amount among the states.

Letter's from Port Royal say that Hunter's proclamation of liberty caused the greatest excitement and terror among the rebels of South Carolina and Georgia, who are greatly rejoiced and relieved at the president's revoking proclamation.

The secretary of the interior has issued a peremptory order forbidding the reception of any more soldiers imprisoned by order of court martial, by the district penitentiary, and has addressed a letter to the secretary of war requesting the removal of those now confined there.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

New York, June 6th.

The Herald's correspondent states that some of the prisoners taken in the battle on Sunday, who were brought to headquarters, say that extraordinary pains were taken by the rebels to kill that one-armed devil—meaning Gen. Kearney. It seemed to them that he bore a charmed life, and was one of their most dangerous adversaries.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that private advices from reliable sources report a flood upon the upper Potomac and the Rappahannock, and that bridges have been carried away. The loss of bridges upon the Rappahannock is not now considered serious.

Times' Dispatch.—We are still without official record of the killed and wounded at the battle before Richmond. Crowds of the friends and relatives of those engaged are arriving every train to obtain correct information, but so far they have come in vain. The answer to the many inquiries at the war office is that no authentic list of the causalties has been received. It is probable that the secretary of war will provide that in future the surgeons of regiments will report through the brigade and division commanders, as soon possible after the battles, accurate lists of the killed, wounded and missing.

Tribune's dispatch.—A released Union officer who has been three days in the hands of the rebels at Winchester, where he talked freely with their officers, says that they seemed to look forward to the destruction of their great armies as a thing sure to happen, sooner or later, and made up their minds to take to the bush and wage a guerilla or partizan warfare, in which they said they felt themselves at home. The officers struck our informant as a fine set of men who were devoted, body and soul, to the cause of the rebellion, but he thought that most of the soldiers seemed not to have their hearts in the business,

Washington, June 5th.

Minister Morris notifies the state department, that the Turkish government has issued an order prohibiting the confederate privates, to any of the ports of the Ottoman Empire, in accordance with the provisions of the treaty of 1856.

Buffalo, June 6.

The Tribune's correspondent states that the 100th regiment which went from this city was mostly cut to pieces or captured. They were in Casey's division. Col. Brown and Lieut. Colonel and major wounded.

Washington, June 5.

The national debt on the 29th of May, 1862, amounts to 491,418,890—the average of interest paid on the entire debt is 4 and 354-1000.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Cairo, June 6.

Fort Wright is evacuated. We are now in possession. The flotilla has passed Fort Randolph, en route to Memphis.

Fort Monroe, June 5.

The first boat load of wounded from the recent battle near Richmond arrived Monday on the steamer State of Maine,

The steamer Mystic arrived this morning with 241 prisoners recently captured by Gen. McClellan, including 11 officers. Newport News has been abandoned as a military post, and the ordnance stores are being removed to the fortress.

Montreal, June 6.

Hon. D'Arcy McGee was re-elected by acclamation to Parliament from Montreal yesterday.

Washington, June 6.

The house is engaged on private bills.

Rolla, Mo., June 5.

Cols. White and Van Selling, of the rebel army, and James Massey, secretary of state under Claib Jackson, together with about 20 ordinary rebels, were captured at Cassville a few days since. Advices from Gen. Curtiss' army in Arkansas, says that scouting parties from Gens. Carr and Osterhouse's divisions, in front of Little Red River and from Gen. Steele's on the left and rear, have been very successful, lately, in breaking up rebel camps and running down guerrillas.

Lieut. Col. Lewis, of the 1st Missouri fell in with a party out of Searcy, charged on them, killing four, wounding about 20, and scattering the rest. Near West Point a party was routed by Maj. Hawkins, of the 16th Missouri, and a rebel lieutenant taken prisoner. Lieut. Col. Ricketts, of the 9th Illinois cavalry, attacked a party at Caiche river, killing four, wounding four, and taking two prisoners, and driving the rest into the swamps.

Major Browne commanding a detachment of his own battalion and the 3rd Iowa cavalry, at 9 p. m. on the 9th of May, fell upon a rebel camp at Cichapoo Bottom, west of Petersville about 50 miles, killing 3 and scattering the rebels in every direction, capturing a large amount of camps and garrison equipments, 22 prisoners, 25 horses, 54 guns, 30 or 40 bowie knives, and 30 revolvers. This was a daring attack. The men leading their horses and charging the swamps with their carbines. Our troops can take the rebels on their own ground of guerilla warfare, and show superior arms and braver conduct.

Chicago, June 6.

Cairo dispatches.—The steamer Shingher has arrived from the fleet. At the time she left the flames were breaking out in the barracks of the fort, and the gunboats had dropped down the river. The De Soto is expected this forenoon with full particulars.

The forces in southwest Missouri, however, will be subject to the order of Major Gen. Curtiss, commander and military governor of Arkansas. The county of Mississippi will belong to the district of Cairo, under Gen. Strong, and the counties of New Madrid and Peniscott to the district of Columbus under Gen. Quimby.

St. Louis, June 5.

A general order from General Halleck says: The state of Missouri, except the counties of Mississippi, New Madrid and Pemiscot, will hereafter constitute the military district of Missouri, to be commanded by Brigadier General Schofield.

The Markets.

New York, June 6.

Flour receipts 22,858 barrels; market quite steady with fair demand. Sales 12,000 bbls. at 4,20a4,25 super western; 4,50a4,55 common to medium ex. western. Wheat receipts 77,415 bushels; market a shade firmer, light supply, and fair export demand. Sales 40,000 bushels at 92a1,02 Milwaukee club; 1,03a1,05 amber Iowa.

Sen. West has made a minority report against any further legislation on the subject of taxes, the last decision of the supreme court rendering it unnecessary.

At an entertainment on board a new propeller, in Milwaukee, a day or two since, a staunch cold water editer, being called upon for a speech, took up his regular glass of cold water, and said:

"Here's to this very fine boat, Sir!
And here's to the fluid that floats her."

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Friday Evening, June 6, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Right of the Nation to Abolish Slavery.

We are under obligations to the Madison Patriot for its prompt publication of our disclaimer of conditional Unionism with which it had charged us. At the same time it desires us to "communicate through the Gazette at your earliest convenience, how you propose to abolish slavery in all the states, without regard to the rights of their slave holders, and at the same time to go for the 'constitution' as it is."

We propose to abolish slavery by the war power of the nation. In a state of peace, when the national government is in no danger, we concede that it has no power over slavery in the states; but in actual war, which now exists, it is clothed with every power necessary to its own preservation. If an individual may take the life of an assailant to save his own, so may a nation; if he can save himself by taking the property or arms of his assailant, or anything else necessary to accomplish his object, at the moment of danger, the inherent principle of self-defence gives him the right to do it, and so may any number of individuals calling themseves a nation do the same thing.

It needs no argument to prove this; the works on international law are running over with precedents to sustain it, and every man is conscious that it is right.

Slavery is the cause of the war, if it had not existed the rebellion would not have occurred. If the institution were now destroyed the rebellion would also be destroyed. Without the slaves the rebels cannot raise food or build fortifications. Induce the slaves by the offer of freedom to take sides with us, abandon their masters, do the camp work of our armies, or whenever necessary, fight in the ranks against the common foe, and the rebel armies would be immediately dispersed. Thus the national government would be saved, and future wars on this subject prevented.

The rebel slave holders have no "rights" which loyal men are bound to respect.—They have no right to life or property—having forfeited every thing by rebellion. If they ever had any right to hold slaves they have none now.

As to the loyal slaveholders, we would remunerate them for their slaves, just as we would pay them for any sacrifice they may be called upon to make to sustain our armies in the field, or to destroy the enemy on his march or in his camp.

The "constitution as it is" provides for all this when it authorizes congress to punish treason, suppress rebellion, to make rules respecting captures on sea and land, and to make all laws necessary and proper to carrying into effect all the powers granted, and also when it makes the president the commander-in-chief of its armies, and causes him to swear to take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and to the best of his ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution, which the rebels seek to overthrow and destroy.

It being necessary to abolish slavery to accomplish all this, at this time, we beleive the president has a right, as commander-in-chief, clothed as he is with all the war powers of the nation, to proclaim the abolition of slavery, wherever war exists, and we pray that he may do it speedily.

Returned Prisoners.

About a dozen privates form the 1st Minnesota and 2d Wisconsin regiments, taken prisoners at Bull Run, and lately released on parole, passed through here last night. They give an interesting account of their ten months of prison life. Moved from point to point, from Richmond to New Orleans in cattle cars, too filthy to decently transport stock in, and packed so close that they could not sit; exposed along the route, to every insult from the heathen inhabiting those localities; spending four months in the common prison in New Orleans, confined in the cells with not even straw to sleep on; the dungeon, equal to the Black Hole of Calcutta, at all times filled; receiving only three ounces of mule meat and six ounces of bread per day; sleeping on the bare floor in rooms 9x13½ with little or no ventilation, and sixteen persons in a room; forms a scene of suffering rarely equalled. Still the boys say they never complained, but rather rejoiced in suffering in so holy a cause.

They say that no one can imagine their feelings on seeing the old flag again, when they arrived at Washington, N. C. From the whole 1500 prisoners there went up a shout, equaled only by that of the Israelites when they escaped from bondage.—From many a hand, suddenly, and, to their captors, unexpectedly, waved the stars and stripes—small flags, which they had made while in New Orleans, and concealed about their persons.

They say that about two weeks before they were released, their treatment was almost entirely changed, having but little to complain of, and during that time only 16 out of their whole number died at New Orleans, and six at Salisbury, N. C.; while their guard lost a greater number. The rebels are giving up all hope of success, and have lost all faith in Beauregard.

The gratification of seeing the men who have suffered so much for their country, return to their homes, is lessened by a knowledge of the manner in which they have been treated by their own government. They have not received a dollar from our government since their imprisonment. In prison they earned what money they could by the labor of their hands in the manufacture of trinkets. Mr. Hubbs, to whom we have elsewhere particularly referred, exhibited to us a chased finger ring made by him from a beef bone. After being received by the United States officers, they were sent to New York without a cent of pay. At Buffalo, the mayor provided them a good meal, and too proud to beg, they made the trip from that city to Chicago without food. Pennsylvania alone had an agent in New York, and all her sons were generously provided for until they should reach home.

Vote of Senator Howe.

Senator Howe, of this state, has been incorrectly reported as one of the three senators who voted against Senator Doolittle's bill for collecting taxes in the insurrectionary districts. The Congressional Globe of May 13th gives the following as the vote on that bill:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, Browning, Chandler, Clark, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Harlan, Harris, Henderson, Howe, King, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, Latham, McDougall, Morrill, Nesmith, Pomeroy, Rice, Sherman, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson, Willey, Wilson of Massachusetts, and Wright—32.

Nays—Messrs. Howard, Powell and Saulsbury—3.

It will be seen that it was Mr. Howard, of Michigan, not Mr. Howe, of Wisconsin, who voted against the bill. When we saw Judge Howe reported as voting against the bill, we thought it very strange, but had no means to contradict it, and are well pleased to be able now to report him voting correctly.

Wisconsin Soldiers in the Hands of the Rebels.—The Philadelphia Inquirer of Monday gives a list of Union officers and soldiers who have been confined at Salisbury, N. C., for the past four months and are still held there. The following names of Wisconsin soldiers are given, all from the 2d regiment:

T. Brookens, Co. C; J. S. Bell, Co D; E. S. Best, Co. G; G. Beck, Co. H; J. E. Donevan, Co. B; J. Frame, Co. B; S. W. Graven, Co. E; Capt. G. Graves, Co. E; S. P. Jackson, Co. B; E. C. March, Co. A; D. Perry, Co. E; H. Parker, Co. A; H. Kohder, Co. C; E. K. Reed, Co. H; J. Ross, Co. K; B. Stimson, Co. E; M. Stroud, Co. E; O. Wilcox, Co. D.

J. Langdon, of Co. I, and Solomon Wise, of Co K, of the Wisconsin 1st are also there.

We received a call this morning from Charles L. Hubbs, formerly a resident of this city, in the family of D. D. Wilson, who arrived with with the Minnesota soldiers last evening. Mr. Hubbs enlisted in the 1st Minnesota regiment, and was taken a prisoner at the Bull Run battle. He, with others, was taken to Richmond, then transferred to New Orleans, where be remained in a parish prison about four months.—The Union prisoners were guarded by criminals, some of the criminals being imprisoned on a charge of murder and other high crimes. From New Orleans he and his companions were taken to Salisbury, N. C., and confined in a military prison until he was released to be sent home.

The prisoners at Salisbury were released in squads of 200, in alphabetical order, and each squad carried to Tarboro, N. C., until 400 had been collected, when they were sent down the river to Washington in open flat boats and placed in charge of Union officers. On one occasion, while making the passage down the river, the prisoners were kept over night in a tar factory, and some of them brought away conclusive evidence of the difficulty of getting out in the quantity of tar adhering to their scant clothing. At Washington they were shipped by steamboat to New York, and from that city were sent on their way to their respective homes.

Mr. Hubbs states that the last squad sent from Salisbury took in a portion of the prisoners whose names commenced with M. This will account for the retention of Ormel Wilcox, of Capt. Ely's company, and others lower in the alphabet than M.—Brookens, Bell, Donovan and others, above M., mentioned in the list of the Philadelphia Inquirer, have been released. No officers had been released at the time Mr. Hubbs left Washington.

The persons who arrived here last night were Chas. W. Merritt, J. W. Imeson, J. B. Murkins, J. Mossburger, C. S. King, C. L. Hubbs of the 1st Minnesota, and L. P. Jackson and ——— Graham (supposed to be George) of the 2d Wisconsin.

CHAPTER 332.

AN ACT relating to the redemption of lands which were sold for unpaid taxes levied in the year 1858.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The time for the redemption of lands sold at any time in the year 1859, for the unpaid taxes levied in the year 1858, is hereby extended to the first day of December next.

Sec. 2. If the clerk of the county board of supervisors of any county has caused to be published, in the manner required by existing laws, a list of unredeemed lands, which were sold in the year 1859, no further publication shall be necessary in consequence of the preceding section; and in all cases where any such clerk has not caused to be published as provided by law, any list of unredeemed lands sold at any time in said year 1859, for taxes of the preceeding year, such clerk shall cause such list to be published for twelve successive weeks prior to the first day of November next, with a notice of the time of redemption; which list and notice shall be published in the newspaper in which such list and notices are now required to be published.

Sec. 3. This act shall be published and take effect immediately; and the secretary of state shall forthwith transmit printed copies thereof to the several clerks of the county board of supervisors.

Approved June 5, 1862.

Fort Wright Evacuated.

We have news, to-day, that the enemy have evacuated Fort Wright and that the flotilla has passed Fort Randolph, en route for Memphis. There are two forts just above Memphis which may somewhat impede their progress — Forts Harris and Pillow.

The French Defeated in Mexico.

The Key West correspondent of the New York Express states that the frigate Potomac had arrived from Vera Cruz with information of the complete defeat of the French and their retreat to Vera Cruz. This is very acceptable news, as the invasion of Mexico by the French is a great outrage.

Union Saving in North Carolina.

Governor Stanly is carrying his pro-slavery notions in North Carolina with a high hand. He has closed all the colored schools, and has commenced sending back slaves to their rebel masters, who take them out of the schools, and drive them off to their plantations. Many of the negroes have fled to the swamps, and they generally declare that they would rather die than go back to their masters. The officers and soldiers of the army are indignant at this state of things. If the administration does not purge itself of these acts of its governor, it will lose friends rapidly in the north. The "modifying" business heretofore has been applied to favor the slave holders. We shall see whether it is a rule that will work both ways.

From Arkansas.

The following is an extract of a letter received by a gentleman of this city:

Batesville, Ark., May 25, 1862.

Friend Merrill:—Southern Missouri is the most miserable, forsaken and dreary region I ever saw, and the people, with scarcely an exception, the most stupid, ignorant and barbarous of any white men (or Indians either) of the world. It was very rarely I met one who could write his name, while the inevitable butternut showed both poverty and indolence. Contrary to all my previous ideas, Arkansas is very fine and most of the people wealthy and intelligent. The greater portion is flat and broad plantations spread out on either hand.—Cotton is stored in great quantities, but there is little in cultivation this season, a law of this state forbidding its planting and requiring corn in its stead. This is generally obeyed, but in this portion they have not burned their cotton, though they have in the adjoining counties. At Pocahantas and Jacksonport we secured a large quantity of sugar, molasses and salt. We have foraged mostly for supplies, especially corn and bacon, but we paid almost every bill except to those who were in the army. I had a mill running for some time making corn meal, and here there are two. This is a beautiful village, about 1500 inhabitants, upon White river. It appears like a New England village, a broad street bordered by large forest trees, the houses tasty and beautiful, gardens of flowers in endless variety. I was at a house, this morning, completely overrun by flowering vines, while the garden was a perfect Arcadia—160 varieties of the rose being but a portion of its beauty, and many of these are in perrenial bloom. The house was a perfect palace within though plain without. The people are refined and cultivated and very friendly, a large number are for the Union.—Nearly all here feel confident that peace and a re-established Union is at hand.—God speed the day, and to him is due the glory. I see that Wisconsin has bled at every pore and laid that true man, Gov. Harvey, to sleep. Oh fearful the reckoning at the bar of Almighty Justice will be theirs, who brought this fiendish rebellion about!

Curtis has moved on towards Little Rock, but is delayed by the swollen rivers. We have 6,000 men ready to strike when we find a chance. Our foraging parties are frequently fired upon, but there are no large bodies in our vicinity. The 11th Wisconsin regiment is here and a splendid regiment it is, and they are in fine health and spirits. Your friend,

B. E. HUTCHINSON.

LEGISLATIVE.

Wednesday, June 4.

In the SENATE, a bill extending the time of redemption on lands sold for the taxes of 1858 to the 1st of December, 1862, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

In the ASSEMBLY, Mr. H. L. Palmer, from the select committee on assessments and taxation, submitted a report, and a tax bill, embracing 155 foolscap pages.

The bill from the Senate extending the time of redemption on the taxes of 1858 was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Thursday, June 5.

In the SENATE, Senator Clark, from the select committee to whom had been referred so much of the Governor's message, as related to the death of Gov. Harvey, reported a series of appropriate resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

The same committee reported several bills; one appropriating to Mrs. Harvey the salary of the Governor, for the full term for which her husband was elected; one appropriating $200 for the erection of a suitable tomb stone over the grave of the late Governor; and one appropriating $500 to procure suitable testimonials to present to several gentlemen who rendered essential aid in procuring the body of the late Governor.

In the ASSEMBLY, the resolutions relating to the death of Gov. Harvey adopted in the Senate were adopted.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Washington, June, 5.

The navy department has issued proposals for the construction and complete equipment of 15 gunboats, speed not less than thirteen knots, to be delivered within four months, and in conjunction with the war department proposals are invited for heavy guns, for both of these branches of the public service.

Eastern Pennsylvania, June 5.

The terrible fushet in the Delaware and Lehigh rivers still continue. The water reaches the second story in the lower part of the town. All the bridges between here and MauchChunk are swept away. The Lehigh bridge is partially gone, and will probably be totally demolished. All the canals are under water. The iron works are stopped and the railroads are submerged.—Many people were drowned in their houses so sudden was the rise.—12 m. The Lehigh is stationary, the Delaware still rising.

Delaware Water Gap, June 2.

There is a very heavy freshet in the Delaware, equal to that of 1841. Articles of furniture, store goods, bridges, houses, &c., are going down the river. All the bridges on Broadhead Creek, excepting the railroad bridges, are gone. The damage to the Delaware, Lackawaxen and Western Railroad is great, and will require a week to repair it. The Poclo Creek at Stroudsburg overflowed, last night, and run through the town, carrying away many houses and bridges. The damage done is very great.

Port Jervis, June 5.

The storm of yesterday and last night was very severe in this vicinity, and considerable damage was done to the Delaware and Hudson Canal. Some 500 or 600 feet of the embankment was washed away near this place, and two or three acquaducts were carried away between here and Lackawaxen.

Washington, June 5.

The substitute of Representative Porter, which is likely to pass in the form offered, provides for emancipation in the following cases: Of every person who shall hereafter act as an officer in the army or navy, or as president, vice-president, member of congress, judge of any court, cabinet officer, foreign minister, commissioner or consul of the so-called confederate states, or as governor of a state, member of a convention or legislature, or judge of any court of the so-called confederate states, or who having held an office of honor, trust or profit in the United States, shall thereafter hold office in the so-called confederate states, and every person who shall hereafter hold any office or agency under the government of such confederate states or of any of the states of such confederacy, but persons holding state offices, unless appointed since the date of the secession ordinance or unless they shall have taken an oath of allegiance to such confederate states; also, the slaves of every person not embraced in the foregoing clauses, who after the passage of this act being actually, wilfully and without coercion or compulsion, engaged in armed rebellion, shall not within sixty days after public warning and proclamation made at his discretion by the President, lay down his arms and return to his allegiance.

Cairo, June 5.

Ten Memphis refuges arrived to-day. They were railroad engineers and say they ran three locomotives out of Memphis, on the Mobile and Ohio road to Humboldt, where they switched them off, brought them north to Trenton, where they found a bridge over Obion river destroyed. They ran the locomotives off the track, burned two bridges behind them and cut the telegraph wires. They bring the Memphis Argus of the 2d, which refers to the so called confederate victory at Richmond, but gives no particulars. Vicksburg is not yet in the possession of the federals. Gen. Vilipigue has asked for reinforcements at Ft. Wright. It was reported at Memphis that Halleck had taken Grand Junction. A meeting of the citizens of Memphis was held at the mayor's office, Sunday night, at which resolutions were adopted that the city will never yield to the enemy while it could be defended. Never voluntarily, and that citizens who don't take arms are expected to give pecuniary aid to the rebellion.

Chicago, June 5.

Special from the Mississippi Flotilla, June 4th.

The bombardment of the fort commenced early yesterday forenoon, and continued all day. It elicited a brisk cannonade from the enemy. The shells of the latter were quite accurately aimed, but failed to do any damage. At 6 o'clock, last evening, three federal rams went down the river to reconnoiter, and were fired on several times after passing Craig Head Point, but all returned uninjured. Subsequently the rebel boat Jeff Thompson came around a point, but being fired on by the Mound City and Cairo, retired. One shot from the former is said to heve taken effect in the wheel house of the rebel boat, On Monday, a party of our scouts captured the mate and 6 seaman of the rebel gunboat Beauregard, nearly opposite Fulton. They made but little resistence. The bombardment of the fort commenced again on the morning of the 4th, and was going on at the time the steamer left. The rebels reply occasionally.

Washington, June 5.

The war department received a dispatch from McClellan, to-day, stating that his dispatch of June 1st in regard to the late battle, was incorrectly published in the newspopers. He sends a copy of the original dispatch and desires its immediate publication, and says he is the more anxious about it as it would seem he had ignored the services of General Sumner, which were too valuable and brilliant to be overlooked. The mistake seems to have occurred in transmission by telegraph.

Corinth, June 5.

General Halleck moved his quarters here, to-day, occupying the house formerly occupied by Bragg. General Thomas occupies the one formerly occupied by Beauregard. The enemy is reported 80,000 strong between Baldwyn and Okolona. At last accounts Pope's advance was this side of Twenty mile Creek, and the enemy's rear guard was on the south side, still retreating. An English officer who deserted says that a high confederate officer told him they left here 120,000 strong, but when they arrived at Boonville 50,000 had deserted, mostly from Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Cairo, June 5.

Memphis papers of the 2d contain dispatches direct from Richmond on the 1st, of which the following is the substance:—Gen. Hill's division commenced the fight on Saturday morning, Rhodes', Garland's, Rains' and Anderson's brigades bearing the brunt of the battle until the arrival of their reinforcements. The federals were driven from their redoubts and their batteries turned upon them. Gen. Lee and President Davis were on the field and their presence increased the enthusiasm of our troops. The Yankees stubbornly contested every inch of the ground, while giving way before the impetuous charges of our men. Large numbers of confederate soldiers are wounded in the arms and legs. Gen. Rhodes is slightly wounded. The enemy tried to make a flank movement about seven o'clock in the evening, but were repulsed.

On Sunday the battle was renewed chiefly with musketry. Prisoners are constantly coming in.

Gen. Hatton of Tennessee is killed. The carnage on both sides is dreadful, the Yankees losing two to our one. About 500 prisoners have already been taken. The last dispatch sent on the 1st states the latest intelligence from the battle field represents the enemy as having been driving back three miles and a half from his position. Our forces occupy their camps at the present time. We captured three batteries after the most desperate fighting. The enemy were protected by wooded entrenchments.

Vicksburg papers of the 31st ult., say that 11 federal gunboats have gone down the river. They say the fleet is no nearer in possession of the city now than it was two weeks ago, and that the insurmountable obstacles encountered below Vicksburg had caused disaffection among the Yankees, compelling the commanders to fall back to reorganize their insubordinate forces.

McClellan's Headquarters, June 5—P. M.

The severe storm of Tuesday lasted the whole of yesterday. The Chickahominy rose to an unprecedented height. Trains from White House to the battle-field were detained, and the telegraph line prostrated.

All information shows that the rebels suffered terribly in the late battle.

All the carts, furniture carts, omnibusses, &c., were impressed for carrying the dead and wounded from the field, and the hotels and private houses are occupied as hospitals.

The rebels opened with artillery this morning, from five different points, opposite New Bridge, to prevent its reconstruction. Three of our batteries replied, causing the rebels to retreat after a hot fire of two hours. We lost one killed and two wounded.

[Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

Washington, June 5.

I was mistaken in my last night's dispatch that Burnham of Connecticut was absent on the emancipation vote. Every member not in the army either paired off or was present. The vote, therefore, is decisive, though, perhaps, the majority may be less on the passage of Porter's substitute than on its recommendation, unless constituency keeps the doubtful members up to their work.

The following brigadier generals are nominated: Col. Elliot, 2d Iowa cavalry, Col. James D. Morgan, Illinois, and Col. Gordon, 2d Massachusetts, now commanding a brigade under Banks.

The tax bill passed a third reading today in the senate.

A tax of two dollars is imposed on slaves of all ages. Mr. Simmons was defeated by a great majority in his proposition to amend the bill. There is no further chance for amendment.

Mr. Fessenden made a speech before the vote was taken on its final passage, against which several members will record themselves to reply.

It is said the president says it is not a proper time to interfere with Gov. Stanly, but many leading republicans demand his removal. Probably the matter is soon to be brought up in both houses.

Petitions were to-day presented by Senator Wade, stating the tax bill unconstitutional, and prayed for the apportionment of the amount among the states.

Letter's from Port Royal say that Hunter's proclamation of liberty caused the greatest excitement and terror among the rebels of South Carolina and Georgia, who are greatly rejoiced and relieved at the president's revoking proclamation.

The secretary of the interior has issued a peremptory order forbidding the reception of any more soldiers imprisoned by order of court martial, by the district penitentiary, and has addressed a letter to the secretary of war requesting the removal of those now confined there.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

New York, June 6th.

The Herald's correspondent states that some of the prisoners taken in the battle on Sunday, who were brought to headquarters, say that extraordinary pains were taken by the rebels to kill that one-armed devil—meaning Gen. Kearney. It seemed to them that he bore a charmed life, and was one of their most dangerous adversaries.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says that private advices from reliable sources report a flood upon the upper Potomac and the Rappahannock, and that bridges have been carried away. The loss of bridges upon the Rappahannock is not now considered serious.

Times' Dispatch.—We are still without official record of the killed and wounded at the battle before Richmond. Crowds of the friends and relatives of those engaged are arriving every train to obtain correct information, but so far they have come in vain. The answer to the many inquiries at the war office is that no authentic list of the causalties has been received. It is probable that the secretary of war will provide that in future the surgeons of regiments will report through the brigade and division commanders, as soon possible after the battles, accurate lists of the killed, wounded and missing.

Tribune's dispatch.—A released Union officer who has been three days in the hands of the rebels at Winchester, where he talked freely with their officers, says that they seemed to look forward to the destruction of their great armies as a thing sure to happen, sooner or later, and made up their minds to take to the bush and wage a guerilla or partizan warfare, in which they said they felt themselves at home. The officers struck our informant as a fine set of men who were devoted, body and soul, to the cause of the rebellion, but he thought that most of the soldiers seemed not to have their hearts in the business,

Washington, June 5th.

Minister Morris notifies the state department, that the Turkish government has issued an order prohibiting the confederate privates, to any of the ports of the Ottoman Empire, in accordance with the provisions of the treaty of 1856.

Buffalo, June 6.

The Tribune's correspondent states that the 100th regiment which went from this city was mostly cut to pieces or captured. They were in Casey's division. Col. Brown and Lieut. Colonel and major wounded.

Washington, June 5.

The national debt on the 29th of May, 1862, amounts to 491,418,890—the average of interest paid on the entire debt is 4 and 354-1000.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Cairo, June 6.

Fort Wright is evacuated. We are now in possession. The flotilla has passed Fort Randolph, en route to Memphis.

Fort Monroe, June 5.

The first boat load of wounded from the recent battle near Richmond arrived Monday on the steamer State of Maine.

The steamer Mystic arrived this morning with 241 prisoners recently captured by Gen. McClellan, including 11 officers. Newport News has been abandoned as a military post, and the ordnance stores are being removed to the fortress.

Montreal, June 6.

Hon. D'Arcy McGee was re-elected by acclamation to Parliament from Montreal yesterday.

Washington, June 6.

The house is engaged on private bills.

Rolla, Mo., June 5.

Cols. White and Van Selling, of the rebel army, and James Massey, secretary of state under Claib Jackson, together with about 20 ordinary rebels, were captured at Cassville a few days since. Advices from Gen. Curtiss' army in Arkansas, says that scouting parties from Gens. Carr and Osterhouse's divisions, in front of Little Red River and from Gen. Steele's on the left and rear, have been very successful, lately, in breaking up rebel camps and running down guerrillas.

Lieut. Col. Lewis, of the 1st Missouri fell in with a party out of Searcy, charged on them, killing four, wounding about 20, and scattering the rest. Near West Point a party was routed by Maj. Hawkins, of the 16th Missouri, and a rebel lieutenant taken prisoner. Lieut. Col. Ricketts, of the 9th Illinois cavalry, attacked a party at Caiche river, killing four, wounding four, and taking two prisoners, and driving the rest into the swamps.

Major Browne commanding a detachment of his own battalion and the 3rd Iowa cavalry, at 9 p. m. on the 9th of May, fell upon a rebel camp at Cichapoo Bottom, west of Petersville about 50 miles, killing 3 and scattering the rebels in every direction, capturing a large amount of camps and garrison equipments, 22 prisoners, 25 horses, 54 guns, 30 or 40 bowie knives, and 30 revolvers. This was a daring attack. The men leading their horses and charging the swamps with their carbines. Our troops can take the rebels on their own ground of guerilla warfare, and show superior arms and braver conduct.

Chicago, June 6.

Cairo dispatches.—The steamer Shingher has arrived from the fleet. At the time she left the flames were breaking out in the barracks of the fort, and the gunboats had dropped down the river. The De Soto is expected this forenoon with full particulars.

The forces in southwest Missouri, however, will be subject to the order of Major Gen. Curtiss, commander and military governor of Arkansas. The county of Mississippi will belong to the district of Cairo, under Gen. Strong, and the counties of New Madrid and Peniscott to the district of Columbus under Gen. Quimby.

St. Louis, June 5.

A general order from General Halleck says: The state of Missouri, except the counties of Mississippi, New Madrid and Pemiscot, will hereafter constitute the military district of Missouri, to be commanded by Brigadier General Schofield.

The Markets.

New York, June 6.

Flour receipts 22,858 barrels; market quite steady with fair demand. Sales 12,000 bbls. at 4,20a4,25 super western; 4,50a4,55 common to medium ex. western. Wheat receipts 77,415 bushels; market a shade firmer, light supply, and fair export demand. Sales 40,000 bushels at 92a1,02 Milwaukee club; 1,03a1,05 amber Iowa.

Sen. West has made a minority report against any further legislation on the subject of taxes, the last decision of the supreme court rendering it unnecessary.

At an entertainment on board a new propeller, in Milwaukee, a day or two since, a staunch cold water editor, being called upon for a speech, took up his regular glass of cold water, and said:

"Here's to this very fine boat, Sir!
And here's to the fluid that floats her."

A Slight Cold,
Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

Public Speakers & Singers

Edward Everett.

We cannot refrain from again calling the attention of our citizens to the fact that Edward Everett is about to visit us, and to impress upon all, the rich feast of eloquence which is in store for those who will take the trouble to hear him. As we said in a former issue, Mr. Everett has no superior in America, as a scholar and orator. He has filled many very important positions in this country. He commenced his career as a minister of the gospel; preached a short time; was elected professor of Greek in Harvard University, with leave to prosecute his studies in Europe; went to Liverpool, Gottingen, Paris, Switzerland and Italy, and spent the winter of 1818 in Rome. Thence he made the tour of Greece, to Constantinople and returned to Paris and London, by way of Vienna; was long a contributor to the North American Review; was ten years a member of congress, from the Middlesex district. In 1835, was elected governor of Massachusetts and held that office four successive years. In 1841, was appointed minister to England, by President Harrison. In 1846, was chosen president of Harvard College, was secretary of state of the United States in 1852; has stood upon the platform as orator on many great national occasions; traversed the country from one end to the other, delivering his great oration on Washington; and now, in this great crisis of liberty, and this great republic, Mr. Everett has consecrated his masterly powers to the task of unfolding the great question at issue to the American mind, in its true light. To one and all, we say, come and hear this great orator, upon the greatest question of the age. [Com.

Proceedings of the Council.

REGULAR MEETING,
THURSDAY EVENING, June 5, 1862.

Present—The Mayor and Ald. Barnes, Bates, Collins, McChesney, Patten and Winans.

Absent—Ald. Pattison and Shelton.

A petition from Chas. Pulker for an auctioneer's license was returned to him to be accompanied with a receipt for the license fee.

Ald. Bates introduced an order directing the suspension of all work on the streets of the 4th ward and the application of all funds arising from the poll tax in that ward to the payment of crosswalks in the 2d ward. Neither of the aldermen from the 4th ward being present, it went through the council "like a mice."

A petition from a majority of the resident property owners on a part of Glen street for the grading of that portion of the street was received and referred to the aldermen of the 2d ward.

A petition from H. S. Austin for a liquor license was received, referred and granted.

A communication was received from Michael Lynch asking for the appointment of city surveyor.

On motion of Ald. Bates, Mr. Lynch was appointed, the city to be liable only for services actually performed by order of some alderman, and to be paid by the ward where the services are rendered.

A claim from McKey and Bro. for a balance due on judgments, was filed with the clerk, to be entered in the next assessment of taxes.

Several accounts were presented and referred.

A petition from Ezra Scofield for a warrant to collect a tax for work in building sidewalks on Jackson street, was referred to the judiciary committee.

The finance committee reported correct the bill of W. Parrit for $3, and of the Gazette office $337.75 for advertising the delinquent tax list of last year. The accounts were allowed, and orders authorized.

The monthly statement of the city treasurer was received, and committed to the finance committee.

The license committee reported in favor of refunding $1.64 to John Lill, overpayment on license, to be paid from the license fund. Adopted.

The aldermen of the 3d ward reported that they had been unable to find any grade established on that portion of Main street which had been referred to them, and submitted a grade to be established by the council. Report accepted.

Ald. Patten then introduced an order establishing the grade, and designated Ezra Miller to make an estimate and division of the cost of the work. Adopted, and grade ordered on file.

Ald. Collins introduced an order instructing the city clerk to permit no person except the city treasurer to remove any book or paper belonging to the city from his office, but certified copies may be given.—Adopted.

The judiciary committee reported an ordinance prohibiting horses, mules and sheep from running at large in the city, and forbidding cattle from running at large between sunset and sunrise, under a penalty of $2 for each head and each violation.

Ald. Patten desired to amend by fixing the time for shutting up the cattle at 10 o'clock in the evening, but yielded to a suggestion of Ald. Winans to make it 9 o'clock.

The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed with this amendment; ayes 5, noes 1, (Ald. Bates.)

Charles Wilcox made a statement to the council concerning the circumstances under which he was fined for allowing horses to run at large in the street, and asked a remission of the fine. Without taking any action, the council adjourned.

COW ORDINANCE.—The common council last evening adopted an ordinance relieving our citizens in part from the annoyance of cows running at large at night. It was, however, shorn of many of its benefits at the earnest request of several aldermen whose cows do not generally come home until nine o'clock in the evening. Ald. Winans endeavored to fix the hour for shutting up at eight o'clock, but Ald. Collins, Patton and Bates, from the rural wards, were too devoted to their own personal interests to consult the interests of the settled portions of the city.

THE LADIES HOSPITAL RELIEF SOCIETY will meet on Saturday, June 7th, from 1½ to 5½ P. M, at Mrs. Josiah Wright's. This will be the last meeting previous to packing the box, which will probably be despatched to its destination early next week.

MARIA F. CLARK, Sec.

The Band of Hope will meet in Lappin's hall Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

O. J. DEARBORN.

PORTRAIT OF GOV. HARVEY.—Mr. Dearborn has had an excellent portrait of Gov. Harvey photographed, and has copies for sale in his bookstore. The photograph is a superior piece of work, and the likeness is an unusually good one. Many friends of the late Governor will undoubtedly avail themselves of this opportunity to possess so desirable a remembrance of him. Price 25 cents.

CLEANING UP THE STREETS.—Main St. has undergone another cleaning up and looks like a new bride, or will when the heaps of dirt are removed. The small amount of labor expended in this way is well repaid.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF
New York.

CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, these well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.13! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

CONTINENTAL INS. COMPANY,

Total Assets $1,071,518.26.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

Scrip Dividends Declared to Customers.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $428,287.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

Edward Everett.

We cannot refrain from again calling the attention of our citizens to the fact that Edward Everett is about to visit us, and to impress upon all, the rich feast of eloquence which is in store for those who will take the trouble to hear him. As we said in a former issue, Mr. Everett has no superior in America, as a scholar and orator. He has filled many very important positions in this country. He commenced his career as a minister of the gospel; preached a short time; was elected professor of Greek in Harvard University, with leave to prosecute his studies in Europe; went to Liverpool, Gottingen, Paris, Switzerland and Italy, and spent the winter of 1818 in Rome. Thence he made the tour of Greece, to Constantinople and returned to Paris and London, by way of Vienna; was long a contributor to the North American Review; was ten years a member of congress, from the Middlesex district. In 1835, was elected governor of Massachusetts and held that office four successive years. In 1841, was appointed minister to England, by President Harrison. In 1846, was chosen president of Harvard College, was secretary of state of the United States in 1852; has stood upon the platform as orator on many great national occasions; traversed the country from one end to the other, delivering his great oration on Washington; and now, in this great crisis of liberty, and this great republic, Mr. Everett has consecrated his masterly powers to the task of unfolding the great question at issue to the American mind, in its true light. To one and all, we say, come and hear this great orator, upon the greatest question of the age. [Com.

Proceedings of the Council.

REGULAR MEETING,
TUESDAY EVENING, June 5, 1862.

Present—The Mayor and Ald. Barnes, Bates, Collins, McChesney, Patten and Winans.

Absent—Ald. Pattison and Shelton.

A petition from Chas. Pulker for an auctioneer's license was returned to him to be accompanied with a receipt for the license fee.

Ald. Bates introduced an order directing the suspension of all work on the streets of the 4th ward and the application of all funds arising from the poll tax in that ward to the payment of crosswalks in the 2d ward. Neither of the aldermen from the 4th ward being present, it went through the council "like a mice."

A petition from a majority of the resident property owners on a part of Glen street for the grading of that portion of the street was received and referred to the aldermen of the 2d ward.

A petition from H. S. Austin for a liquor license was received, referred and granted.

A communication was received from Michael Lynch asking for the appointment of city surveyor.

On motion of Ald. Bates, Mr. Lynch was appointed, the city to be liable only for services actually performed by order of some alderman, and to be paid by the ward where the services are rendered.

A claim from McKey and Bro. for a balance due on judgments, was filed with the clerk, to be entered in the next assessment of taxes.

Several accounts were presented and referred.

A petition from Ezra Scofield for a warrant to collect a tax for work in building sidewalks on Jackson street, was referred to the judiciary committee.

The finance committee reported correct the bill of W. Parrott for $3, and of the Gazette office $357.75 for advertising the delinquent tax list of last year. The accounts were allowed, and orders authorised.

The monthly statement of the city treasurer was received, and committed to the finance committee.

The license committee reported in favor of refunding $1.64 to John Lill, overpayment on license, to be paid from the license fund. Adopted.

The aldermen of the 3d ward reported that they had been unable to find any grade established on that portion of Main street which had been referred to them, and submitted a grade to be established by the council. Report accepted.

Ald. Patten then introduced an order establishing the grade, and designated Ezra Miller to make an estimate and division of the cost of the work. Adopted, and grade ordered on file.

Ald. Collins introduced an order instructing the city clerk to permit no person except the city treasurer to remove any book or paper belonging to the city from his office, but certified copies may be given.—Adopted.

The judiciary committee reported an ordinance prohibiting horses, mules and sheep from running at large in the city, and forbidding cattle from running at large between sunset and sunrise, under a penalty of $2 for each head and each violation.

Ald. Patten desired to amend by fixing the time for shutting up the cattle at 10 o'clock in the evening, but yielded to a suggestion of Ald. Winans to make it 9 o'clock.

The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed with this amendment; ayes 5, noes 1, (Ald. Bates.)

Charles Wilcox made a statement to the council concerning the circumstances under which he was fined for allowing horses to run at large in the street, and asked a remission of the fine. Without taking any action, the council adjourned.

COW ORDINANCE.—The common council last evening adopted an ordinance relieving our citizens in part from the annoyance of cows running at large at night. It was, however, shorn of many of its benefits at the earnest request of several aldermen whose cows do not generally come home until nine o'clock in the evening. Ald. Winans endeavored to fix the hour for shutting up at eight o'clock, but Ald. Collins, Patten and Bates, from the rural wards, were too devoted to their own personal interests to consult the interests of the settled portions of the city.

THE LADIES HOSPITAL RELIEF SOCIETY will meet on Saturday, June 7th, from 1½ to 5½ P. M, at Mrs. Josiah Wright's. This will be the last meeting previous to packing the box, which will probably be despatched to its destination early next week.

MARIA F. CLARK, Sec.

The Band of Hope will meet in Lappin's hall Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

O. J. DEARBORN.

PORTRAIT OF GOV. HARVEY.—Mr. Dearborn has had an excellent portrait of Gov. Harvey photographed, and has copies for sale in his bookstore. The photograph is a superior piece of work, and the likeness is an unusually good one. Many friends of the late Governor will undoubtedly avail themselves of this opportunity to possess so desirable a remembrance of him. Price 25 cents.

CLEANING UP THE STREETS.—Main St. has undergone another cleaning up and looks like a new bride, or will when the heaps of dirt are removed. The small amount of labor expended in this way is well repaid.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF
New York.
Cash Capital and Surplus Over
$1,500,000.00.
CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked ubon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as it is, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand children, as a memorial of the present time

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes;

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
